

Miss Parker

I have requested Miss Ball to furnish ^{for an hour} me with the checked list of the year & ways taken at ~~our~~ ^{the} last meeting of our Society which she desires to do. As I believe that I have the right as a member of the Society to see the list, may I request you ~~as per is~~ to direct Miss Ball to furnish me with it.

Yrs &c

Anne W. Weston.

Ms. A. 9.2.11.20

A. W. W. to Miss Parker. about last

F A I R.

1838

An unequalled opportunity for the selection of Christmas and New Year's Presents is offered by the rare and beautiful collection of articles to be found at the

Marlboro' Hall, Washington Street,

ON TUESDAY & WEDNESDAY, 29TH & 30TH OCTOBER.

It will comprise six different styles of Ladies' Parisian Neck-ties, for the promenade or drawing-room, of very rich material; Children's Winter Dresses, some very beautiful; Bonnets and Hoods, the former of the well-known Foxboro' manufacture, the latter of the latest style. Just received, rich corded Aprons; Parisian Frills; blond and net Caps; Bonnet do.; silk and cambric Night-caps; Cologne; Sweet-meats; Purses; Needle-books; China Ink-stands; &c. with anti-slavery mottos; Children's Socks, Mittens and Comforts; Shells, scientifically arranged; twenty varieties of Bags, Reticules and Cabas, of velvet, German worsted, satin and cord; Worsted work of every description; Watch-cases, Slippers, Mats, Bags, &c. Very rich wrought Book-covers, Pin-cushions, and Napkin Rings, in silk, canvas and floss. Ring-stands, Allumette do.; satin and velvet French Box and Basket work of every kind; Screens of silk and gilded and embossed morocco; Card-cases and Baskets; Portfolios, Music and Letter-books; Writing Cases, all finished with exquisite pencil-drawings and flower paintings; rich damask Tabourets and Ottomans; East India Scenery and Manners illustrated, in a very valuable series of drawings on sheet talc; rice paper paintings; Herbarium; East India Figures; exquisitely carved pastille Burners; plain and wrought Capes, Collars and Handkerchiefs. A full list of useful articles, too numerous to specify. Eolian Harp; Memorandum Books and Card-cases of embossed bronze-leather.

A TABLE RICHLY FURNISHED FOR CHILDREN.

Among the attractions of the occasion will be a Printing Press in full operation, working off the

NORTH STAR,

THE JOURNAL OF THE FAIR.

The BOOK TABLE will be supplied with a new Annual, got up for the occasion, called THE LIBERTY BELL. Prints of distinguished individuals; Books of rare Autographs; Relics of Pennsylvania Hall.

[JUST RECEIVED FROM LONDON,]
—(PR. RUSSELL.)—

Three cases of new styles of Fancy Goods—invaluable as Models for Fancy Work.

ICES, CAKES, FRUIT AND FLOWERS.

The avails of the Sale will be passed into the Treasury of the Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society.